Aghil Mohammed

Administrator at Carter and Finch, Malappuram, Kerala, India
Kerala, India

Summary

As an Administrative Officer at Carter & Finch, I play a key role in supporting and streamlining operations across multiple business functions and geographies. My work focuses on ensuring efficient internal processes, coordination across teams, and maintaining structured systems that enable smooth day-to-day operations and long-term scalability.

I work closely with management and cross-functional teams on areas including operations coordination, compliance support, documentation, workflow optimization, vendor coordination, and internal process improvement. I am also involved in supporting multi-branch and multi-geography operations, ensuring alignment between projects, finance, HR, and administrative functions.

With a strong operational mindset and attention to detail, I focus on improving efficiency, accountability, and transparency across the organization. I am committed to building structured processes, supporting team productivity, and contributing to a culture of continuous improvement and professional excellence at Carter & Finch.

Open to meaningful discussions, knowledge sharing, and collaborations that drive operational effectiveness and sustainable growth.
